Join us for the KoperniKids program, a kid-friendly approach to Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math (STEM) exploration designed especially for children 3 to 6 years old. Each session will offer fun, hands-on learning with a different set of activities, experiments, and songs that will encourage your child to participate in the wonderful world of science, technology, engineering, and math. Come to one, two, or all six sessions!

Down By the Bay

Saturday, July 18

10:30 a.m. – Noon

Students will learn about ocean creatures and the habitat they live in and explore the differences between fresh and salt water. Students will create discovery bottles and an ocean creature to take home.

Rockin' Rocks

Saturday, August 15

10:30 a.m. – Noon

Kids will learn about different types of rocks, hunt in Kopernik's yard to find fossils, and some creatures that live under the rocks as well. They will make conglomerate rocks to take home.

Plenty of Planets

Saturday, September 19

10:30 a.m. – Noon

In this class, kids will learn about the planets in our solar system and create a model of the solar system to take home. They also will celebrate International Observe the Moon Day.

Interesting Insects

Saturday, October 24

10:30 a.m. – Noon

Kids will learn about the importance of insects in our world and how to identify and take pictures of them in our backyard. They will study butterfly and bee life cycles, sample honey, and explore a beehive.

It's Electric!

Saturday, November 14

10:30 a.m. – Noon

Kids will explore electricity, the kind that moves (current) and the kind that stays in one place (static), by doing fun and safe experiments with both types.

Sounds of Music

Saturday, December 12

10:30 a.m. – Noon

In this class, kids will learn about sound, create musical instruments, and learn how various instruments make their unique sounds.
